PETER FOLLOWED JESUS

The next few letters that Linda received from her uncle contained more pages from Hali's diary. The letters described the things that Peter learned from Jesus. The first letter said,

Today I went walking by the Sea of Galilee. Simon Peter and Andrew were fishing. Jesus walked by. I was so excited. I listened to Him talk to the men. Jesus told them if they would follow Him, they could fish for men. I was really surprised when they stopped fishing. I wonder what fishing for men means?

Peter's obedience. From Hali's diary:

I wonder what my father would have done if Jesus had asked him to give up his job and follow Jesus. I didn't hear Jesus say anything about salary. I wonder how Simon Peter will get food and clothes. Peter obeyed Jesus. I think he had faith in Jesus.

I asked Simon Peter why he would give up his job to follow Jesus. He told me that he believed Jesus was God's Son and the Saviour of the world. Everyone should obey God's Son.

III. GOD USES SAUL

After he wondered what Jesus would want him to do, Saul had a kind of dream. In his dream, a man named Ananias put his hands on him and Saul was able to see again.

At the same time, Jesus was preparing Ananias to visit Saul.

Jesus told Ananias that Saul was praying, but Ananias was afraid to go to Saul. Jesus explained that He had chosen Saul to work for Him. He also said that Saul would have to suffer because of his believing in Jesus and working for him.

Review these objectives. When you have completed this section, you should be able to:

5. List the events leading to the salvation of Saul in the order in which they happened.
7. List some works of the Holy Spirit.
8. Describe some results of the salvation of Saul.
9. List the thirteen New Testament books which Paul wrote.
10. Write 1 Corinthians 15:3 and 4 from memory.
11. Define new vocabulary words.
